PARENTS' RIGHT TO KNOW

The No Child Left Behind Act (NCLB) requires that, upon request, parents be notified of the professional qualifications of their child's teacher in:

- core academic subjects. This information includes:
- the type of credential the teacher holds.
- the teacher's college degree(s) and major(s).

A parent may also request information regarding the professional qualifications of a teacher assistant who provides services to his/her child.

Additionally, schools must provide timely notice to the parents of a child who has been assigned to, or has been taught in, a core academic subject for four or more consecutive weeks by a teacher who does not meet the NCLB teacher requirements.
